

Dear Student,

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, faculty, administrators and staff, I am pleased to welcome you to Joliet Junior College (JJC). We are happy that you have chosen JJC to pursue your educational goals, and we committed to do everything possible to make your experiences with us successful and rewarding.

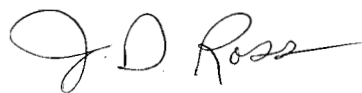

As you read through this catalog, you will find that JJC is a comprehensive community college. We work hard to meet the expectations of students whose interests and educational programming needs are very diverse. From our outstanding academic and occupational programs offering degree and certificates; to our Institute of Economic Technology offering workforce preparation, training and business development; to our Division of Adult and Family Services offering services such adult preparation, GED completion and English as a Second Language programs; to our Lifelong Learning programs, Joliet Junior College has it all. We also offer many events and resources to the community that thousands of residents take advantage of throughout the year.

As the oldest public community college in the United States, Joliet Junior College is known for its leadership and innovation. However, excellent programs and services cannot be offered without an outstanding staff at all levels. We are very proud of the faculty and staff who work here. They are committed to excellence and dedicated to serving their students by promoting the college's Core Values of respect, integrity, collaboration, quality, innovation, and humor and well-being.

We serve residents in parts of seven counties with three permanent campus locations in Will County and a satellite campus in Grundy County. We also offer classes in numerous other locations throughout the college district. In addition, we have a wide variety of classes offered through our distance education program using both online and video delivery systems.

I encourage you to utilize all of the college's resources as you pursue your educational goals. Joliet Junior College has a long and well-deserved track record for assisting students to make dreams come true. Let us help you to make your dreams come true also.

Sincerely,

J. D. Ross
President.
