JOLIET JUNIOR COLLEGE DUAL ADMISSIONS PROGRAM

WHAT IS DUAL ADMISSIONS?

- A joint admissions program with participating colleges/universities providing you the opportunity to gain admission while attending JJC.

WHAT ARE THE ADVANTAGES OF DUAL ADMISSIONS?

- Saves the student money by taking courses at JJC with lower tuition and fees.
- Provides students better control over academic planning by only taking the courses needed in order to graduate/transfer.
- Allows students to visit the participating college campus prior to transferring, and to meet with the admissions staff and academic advisors.
- Early acceptance to the participating transfer school will help ease the student's transfer process.
- Students transfer to a participating institution better prepared for upper division courses in their field of study.

HOW DOES THE DUAL ADMISSIONS PROGRAM WORK?

- Complete a Joliet Junior College Application for Admission Form.
- Fill out the Dual Admission information below.
- Turn in the application and the Dual Admissions Program information to the JJC Admissions Office.
- Student participating in any Dual Admissions agreement MUST also complete and send an application to those senior institutions.
