Your 2015-2016 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) indicates that you (student) and/or your spouse are a dislocated worker. To determine your eligibility for the Illinois MAP Dislocated Worker rule, complete this form as it applies to the household on the FAFSA. Information provided, as well as additional supporting documentation, is needed to determine if the dislocated worker status applies.

Note: If a person voluntarily quits work or is terminated because of job performance, generally he or she is not considered a dislocated worker, even if receiving unemployment benefits.

Section A
Check any of the boxes that apply to your situation
- I (student) am not considered a dislocated worker.
- My spouse is a considered a dislocated worker.

If you checked either of the boxes above, you may skip Section B and sign your name in Section C.

Section B
Complete the following, attach all appropriate supporting documentation, and submit to the institution.

1. Current Employment Status
   - Review the following and indicate which situation(s) applies to you (student).
     - I have been employed again since being dislocated or displaced in any field of work.
     - I am still currently trying to find employment.

2. Current Dislocated Worker Status
   - Review the following and indicate which situation(s) applies to you (student). Submit a letter explaining your dislocated situation in detail as well as acceptable documentation listed below for each circumstance.
     - I have been permanently laid off or terminated from my previous occupation.
       - Submit a copy of separation or termination notice from previous employer.
     - I am receiving unemployment benefits due to being laid off or losing a job and am unlikely to return to a previous employer or occupation.
       - Submit current documentation of unemployment compensation benefits that shows effective dates.
     - I was self-employed but am now unemployed due to economic conditions or natural disaster.
       - Submit a 2014 IRS Tax Return Transcript and all 2014 IRS Tax Return Transcript schedules.
       - Submit proof of income loss
       - Submit proof of business closing

Section C
I certify that all of the above information is complete and correct. I authorize the office to verify employment information with the prior employer(s) if necessary.

Student Signature ___________________________ Date ___________________________