

Tutoring Scenario 1

A woman claiming to be your tutee's girlfriend calls you and asks if her boyfriend is scheduled for a tutoring session with you. Because you paid close attention to Stephanie when she presented FERPA information, you learned that you cannot provide that information to anyone but the tutee. This woman then adds that she is currently in labor and desperately trying to get in contact with your tutee. What do you do?

Tutoring Scenario 2

A JJC instructor is curious about whether his student, Spongebob Squarepants, has been regularly attending tutoring sessions with you. Are you at liberty to provide him with this information? Why or why not?

Tutoring Scenario 3

Your tutee, Mr. Krabs, drops in for a brief tutoring session and explains that because Plankton is trying to steal the Krabby Patty formula, he didn't have time to proofread his ENG 101 essay. He asks if you could proofread it and then leave it in your mailbox so he can pick it up later. What do you tell Mr. Krabs?

Tutoring Scenario 4

You have been tutoring Squidward for about a month and have a good rapport with him. He comes to his tutoring sessions on time and prepared. He asks if your next tutoring session could take place at Starbucks on Jefferson Street because he can concentrate better when he drinks Frappaccinos and listens to Jazz music. What do you tell Squidward?

Tutoring Scenario 5

It is the end of the semester and Pearl is so excited that you helped her pass her Spanish 101 class that she brings you $100.00. Can you keep the money? What should you tell Pearl?

Tutoring Scenario 6

Larry the Lobster enjoys writing papers and completing math homework between 11:00 p.m. and 3:00 a.m. but is disappointed to learn that the Academic Skills Center is closed during these hours. Does Larry have other options for receiving tutoring assistance at that time? What advice would you give Larry?

Tutoring Scenario 7

Your tutee, Patrick Star, begins his session by telling you very plainly that he can hear voices but none of them know how to use Microsoft Excel. So, he would like to learn from you. Explain how you would proceed with the rest of this tutoring session.
