

JJC Student Government Book Scholarship

Awarded for the following spring or fall semester

ABOUT THE SCHOLARSHIP

The JJC Student Government (SG) works together to make sure fellow students' interests and rights are protected. Members of Student Government enjoy representing the students and have had several successful projects since their formation in 1998. This scholarship is one of the projects SG is proud to be sponsoring.

The Book Scholarship is funded by fees collected through the use of the ATM cash station located in J-Building at Main Campus. A maximum of (4) four $250 scholarships will be awarded both fall and spring semesters for use in the JJC bookstore.

Students must be currently enrolled in at least three (3) credit hours and have earned a minimum of (6) six credit hours at the time of application. Students are eligible to receive this award one time only. Current voting members of the JJC Student Government are ineligible.
