Question Received:

1. Will the integrator that is installing the servers also be adding/programming the cameras and adding the new camera licenses?

Yes

2. Will the integrator providing the server hardware need to be certified on your access control platform, even if that is not part of the install right now?

Yes, Our desire is to be able to work with the same partner to add this integration. This way they know what has been set up and done in the system, to reduce finger pointing and/or additional work.
